ORDER

Plaintiff Quinn Aaron Klein, a state prisoner appearing pro se, filed this action, alleging that defendants, apparently prison employees, have placed him in danger by telling other inmates that he is a snitch and has Aids/HIV. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), the matter was referred for initial proceedings to Magistrate Judge Charles B. Goodwin, who has recommended that plaintiff be required to pay the full $400.00 filing fee before being allowed to proceed with this action. He recommends that plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis ("ifp") be denied because plaintiff has accumulated three strikes, see 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), and has not demonstrated the required "imminent danger of serious physical injury" for ifp status. *Id.*¹ Specifically, the magistrate judge concluded, after reviewing the complaint, plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and his other filings to date that he "has not provided adequate factual detail to support his ¹The magistrate judge concluded that, while the complaint is entitled "Petition for Habeas Corpus," the action is more appropriately construed as one brought under § 1983 rather than 42 U.S.C. § 2254 or § 2241. The court agrees.

conclusory assertion that his safety is in jeopardy and indeed has recently made a statement contradicting his assertion of being in danger.” Doc. #8, p. 4.

Plaintiff objected to the Report and Recommendation. However, he failed to show that the magistrate judge erred when he concluded plaintiff had not made the necessary showing to proceed ifp.

Accordingly, the court adopts Magistrate Judge Goodwin’s Report and Recommendation. Plaintiff’s motion to proceed ifp [Doc. #6] is DENIED. Unless plaintiff pays the $400.00 filing fee by February 14, 2014, this action will be dismissed without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 22nd day of January, 2014.
